If you are wildly in love, starry-eyed about your honeymoon, you need an unforgettable, relaxed and stimulating honeymoon, and of course very affordable. We have an itinerary that is perfect for you - a luxurious and romantic honeymoon in idyllic location off the beaten track, on the private island. The Lazy Lagoon Island is the perfect destination for isolation and exclusivity. Large airy bandas are located just feet from the crashing ocean and moonlit dinners on the beach offer the perfect end to a day.

Lazy Lagoon Private Island is an idyllic 9km private island 2km off shore of main land Tanzania. It's the ideal secluded getaway with uninterrupted beaches and swimming at all tides. Swimming is protected by coral and one can snorkel from the beach. Not only can it boast nine kilometres of deserted beach, but it is also a natural reserve home to many small mammals, mangrove trees and patches of indigenous forest.

Lazy Lagoon Lodge is built using local materials and traditional Swahili architecture. All the buildings have tall steep roofs designed to "catch" the sea breezes, keeping you cool in African heat.

There are 12 beach bandas, all quite large and very airy covered by a giant Makuti roof, only yards from the beach.

The rooms have en suite bathrooms, outdoor hammocks, large beds and the well sized veranda's allow for a private and scenic view of the Indian Ocean. The view from the rooms and main area favour a typical sunrise over Zanzibar whilst the fishing boats pass to go out to sea and sunset over the palm trees of Bagamoyo.

The Lounge, bar, dining area is at tip of the island with panoramic views of Lazy Lagoon, the mainland and the open sea. The menu is delicious fresh seafood – caught daily.

The island has a great little eco-system. You are likely to see bush babies, suni antelope and bush pig, and of course the amazing diversity of birdlife. The seas round here are filled with exotic and tropical marine life and the natural mangrove forests harbour ideal nesting areas for water birds.

Activities: sailing, (laser II dinghies), kayaking, snorkelling, fishing and guided excursions to Bagamoyo town and Kaole ruins. Diving can be arranged with the nearby diving centre rates on request.

Accommodation rates are full board including 3 meals, tea, coffee and laundry.
