Day 3: Serengeti National Park –Balloon ride and full day game safari

Early morning balloon ride. For Serengeti hot-air balloon trip we take you around 5.00 am. Serengeti Balloon Safaris brings guests an unforgettable hot air balloon rides, and it's one of the best ways to view the wildlife unobtrusively. It is one of the best opportunities for "off-roading." Explore outside the trails, float over rivers and get a new perspective on secluded areas. The flight is for about one hour, depending on the conditions. When landing celebrates in the traditional manner with sparkling wine, before sitting down to a full English breakfast in the plains– not a bad way to start another day in paradise.

After breakfast, you receive your Serengeti Balloon certificate and later start your game drive

The Serengeti National Park is one of those very rare places that has a huge reputation, yet still somehow manages to surpass expectations and take your breath away. One of the greatest wildlife-watching destinations on earth. The vast plains of the Serengeti comprise 1.5 million ha of Savannah. The annual migration to permanent water holes of vast herds of herbivores (wildebeest, gazelles, and zebras), followed by their predators, is one of the most impressive natural events in the world.

Day 4- Game drive Tarangire

After breakfast we will pick you up and proceed to Tarangire National park. This place is characterized by the large herds of elephants, tree climbing lions, and the fascinating baobab trees also called the Tree of Life. This park is especially known for Tarangire river which flows all year round. Located slightly off the main safari route, Tarangire National Park is a lovely, quiet park in Northern Tanzania. It is most famous for its elephant migration, birding and authentic safari atmosphere. The majority of travellers to the region either miss out Tarangire altogether or venture into the park for a matter of hours - leaving swathes of Tarangire virtually untouched!
